

DIFFIDENT, indeed, would be the lady who would not be enraptured at the display of Fall and Winter Dress Goods now displayed on our shelves. All the very latest styles are here, and the Roman Stripes and the new Plaids are sure to please, while the numerous shades of plain goods will appeal to all. Another item that will please the stylish lady is the beautiful line of new coatings. Never before has the weaver produced goods of this class in such beautiful designs.

Then, too, there are the Laces and Chiffons, impossible to describe in cold type, but so pleasing to the eye that it is a pleasure to examine them.

New Fall and Winter goods are constantly arriving. In a few days a complete line of seasonable Waists will be here, and they will be followed by the most complete line of Silks ever shown in this community.

"Where the Ladies Shop"

A post-nuptial "rush" was given in honor of Mrs. Philip J. Sinnott, nee Florence Bowen, by Mrs. Edmund W. Gowen Jr. at her home on Jefferson street Friday afternoon, which was attended by Mrs. Edmund W. Gowen Sr., Mrs. Claude Coseboom, Miss Claudia O'Loughlin, Miss Marguerite Dunbar, Miss Ella Dewe, Miss Marjorie McClure, Miss Josephine Van Riper, Miss Lillian Van Riper, Miss Verda Cosad, Miss Kathryn Sinnott, Miss Fannie Virgil, Miss Mary Schubert, Miss Nina Noel and Miss Bee Summers. Mrs. Sinnott was the recipient of a shower of useful and beautiful presents, and after the presentation, five hundred was played. The prize was won by Miss Noel, who presented it to the guest of honor. Late in the afternoon, faint refreshments were served by the hostess, some time after which the enjoyable party came to a close by the dispersing of the guests.

Miss Kathryn Sinnott, who has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Sinnott, left this morning for her home in Oregon City.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was the union Sunday school picnic and excursion given Thursday. There were about 250 children and grownups aboard when the steamer Winema cast her moorings and started for a cruise of the Upper Lake. The trip across beautiful Klamath Lake was enjoyed by all. Some real "action" was instilled into the excursionists when the gangplank was thrown out at the Johnson picnic grounds, between Rocky Point and Harriman Lodge, which kept all in a state of excitement for some little time. To make it brief, the gangplank dropped on a nest of yellowjackets—with the usual result. A few hours were spent at the picnic grounds, and after the lunches had been disposed of, the children enjoyed a riotous romp in the sylvan wonderland, the return being made early in the evening.

One of the biggest events in the history of the local Art Club occurred Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, when the club gave its first art exhibition in the Library Club building. There were numerous contributions in oil and water colors, pastels, crayon and pen and ink sketches, besides a highly creditable display of china painting. During the three days of the display, several hundred persons visited it, and there was much surprise expressed at the talent of local painters. There were many local scenes, and also some fanciful paintings that were remarkably good.

Miss Jennie Applegate, daughter of Captain and Mrs. O. C. Applegate, has departed for Berkeley, where she will enter the University of California.

A very pretty morning wedding occurred at 9:30 Wednesday, August 12th, at the residence of County Superintendent J. Percy Wells in Jacksonville, says the Ashland Tidings, in the marriage of Harry E. Goeller and Miss Maude Rippey, both of Klamath Falls. Rev. W. T. Van Scoy of Ashland performing the ceremony, which included the bestowal of the ring by the groom. The relatives and a few intimate friends were the only guests. County Superintendent Wells and wife, close friends of the young couple, gave invitation for the happy affair to be in their home, and Mrs. Wells covered herself over with glory in the preparation of the wedding breakfast of rich viands and rare delicacies. The home of Miss Rippey had been in Jackson county up to three years ago. She is an Oregonian by birth, and was educated in the public schools and the Southern Oregon State Normal, from which she graduated as a trained teacher with the class of 1908. She taught, after graduating from the normal, two years in the Ashland schools, one year at Gold Hill, and three years in the schools of Klamath Falls, where she could have continued indefinitely. She has been a very successful teacher and is an accomplished young woman. The groom is a native of Kansas, and was educated in the Klamath Falls graded and high school. He is a sterling business young man, associated with his father in the Klamath Falls Sash and Door Factory. The happy couple were loaded with rich presents as will be useful in their new home. They started on Wednesday afternoon by auto for Crater Lake. After spending a fortnight of outing they will return to Klamath Falls, where they will go to housekeeping at once, and the groom will continue with his father in business. Many good wishes follow them.
